Sponsorship & Exhibition Invitation

We hereby invite sponsors and exhibitors to join us at The Ninth International Geostatistics Congress held in Oslo, Norway, June 11th – 15th 2012.

The International Geostatistics Congress gathers 300 – 400 world leading experts, researchers and practitioners in the field of geostatistics and spatial statistics every fourth year. During the congress there will be presentations on fundamental theoretical problems, new methods and algorithms, and practical issues in the many applications of geostatistics. This is an important meeting place for colleagues and researchers working in academia and industry all over the world.

This is where you can create the personal meeting!
We hope to attract sponsors that benefits from the continued development of geostatistics and who wants to meet scientists, practitioners and students in the field of geostatistics. In particular we hope to see companies from the geoscience, mining and petroleum sector including software vendors and engineering and consultancy companies.

We hope you will read about our sponsorship packages with interest, and contact us soon to secure the best package for your company. You can also find more information on www.geostats2012.no

Yours Sincerely

Petter Abrahamsen,
Henning Omre, Arnoldo Frigessi,
Ørnulf Borgan, Ragnar Hauge,
Odd Kolbjørnsen,
Richard Sinding-Larsen
